

American Pharmacist's Association, Washington DC

Elevation problems 3 floors underground can impose a serious problem to any underlayment company. However, it was no match for our pump truck, which supplied our product through 500ft of hose directly to the problem areas. In this production studio we poured at an average depth of 3.25 inches over Verdex recycled rubber sound mat.

